

What kind of person would you hire to be the state's top money manager?

Education... Experience... Knowledge.

Compare the candidates.

Working Californians
777 S. Figueroa Street, Suite 4050
Los Angeles, CA 90017

PRSR STD
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
MMS

34-00-02

Candidates for Controller

Dear Hiring Committee, Please review these candidates for State Controller, the state's top money manager.

John Chiang

Graduated with honors in Finance
Law Degree and legal practice in tax law

Tony Strickland

BA, Political Science

Education

References:

* "For controller, Democrat John Chiang is the best candidate. Chiang, who has both a finance and a law degree, has spent 10 years on the state Board of Equalization." [Pasadena Star News 10/22/06]

Strickland "lacks the kind of experience we would like to see in the job." [Long Beach Press-Telegram, 9/15/06].

Experience

John Chiang

Attorney for the IRS
Attorney for State Controller
Chairman of state Board of Equalization
Member of Franchise Tax Board

Tony Strickland

President of Republican fundraising organization
Campaign manager
Chief of Staff to State Senator
State Assemblymember

References:

"Chiang's experience, including two terms on the state Board of Equalization and serving as legal counsel to the controller's office, makes him a clear choice over Strickland, a termed-out former assemblyman from Thousand Oaks." [Santa Cruz Sentinel 10/20/06]

Strickland "struggles with basic questions about the job's responsibilities." [San Diego Union-Tribune 10/19/06]

"Chiang is the superior candidate based on his financial background, his expertise in tax law and his experience in working in the controller's office..." [Santa Rosa Press Democrat 10/20/06]

Hire John Chiang for State Controller:
Education. Experience. Knowledge.
(and excellent references, too!)