

“The Right Man for the Job”
LA Daily News

John Chiang
for Controller

Working Californians
777 S. Figueroa Street, Suite 4050
Los Angeles, CA 90017

Paid for by Working Californians

PRSRPT STD
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
MMS

A portrait of John Chiang, a man with short dark hair and glasses, wearing a dark suit, light blue shirt, and patterned tie. He is smiling and looking towards the camera. The background is a blurred office window with a view of a city skyline.

If you're looking for experience, qualifications and trustworthiness in the State Controller, look no further than John Chiang.

Here's what California newspapers are saying about John Chiang:

Daily News

"Chiang's intelligence and background in finance makes him more than just a better candidate—it makes the Democratic candidate the right man for the job as the state's top money manager." [LA Daily News, 10/15/06]

The Modesto Bee

Chiang "has worked in the controller's office and is an expert on tax law." [Modesto Bee 10/12/06].

San Francisco Chronicle

"He's a hard-working numbers-cruncher who pushes for more public outreach on explaining arcane tax laws. He has both finance and law degrees, two essentials for the job. ...Chiang is the right choice for controller." [SF Chronicle 10/15/06]

AP Associated Press

Chiang "Experience: Tax law specialist with the Internal Revenue Service; attorney for the state controller's office; member of the state Board of Equalization, 1997-present; member of the Franchise Tax Board, 2002 and 2004-present."

[AP 9/22/06]

Press-Telegram

Chiang's "numbers-crunching background, legal experience and commitment to his current job in an obscure political office make him the easy choice for state controller."

[Long Beach Press-Telegram 9/15/06]

John Chiang: Trained for the job.
Ready to serve.